1. The Purchasing Commission for the Soviet Ministry of Aviation, which succeeded SKTB-1 at Junkers-Dessau, was dissolved. Employees were not discharged but given indefinite leaves of absence. Manufacturers were notified that they are now responsible to the Purchasing Office for the Soviet Ministry for Aviation at Hohdenstrasse (sic) 5 in Karlshorst. Major Svertnikov, the last remaining SKTB-1 officer, claims SKTB-1 may reopen in July after a complete reorganization.
Comment: This is the first information concerning the elimination of SKTB-1. The latter's files were given to the MVD; Junkers' personnel files were turned over to the Dessau city government. The final ambiguous sentence on reopening was not clarified.
2. Blasting operations at Junkers are in full swing; the last dismantled equipment is being shipped; dismantling operations are expected to be completed some time in July. The Requisitioning Department of the State Government has appointed a commission to determine the present status of Junkers assets.
3. The first money orders for dependents of deported Junkers employees have arrived from Russia. Simultaneously, the State Government has been ordered to pay 200 marks monthly to any family not receiving money orders on schedule.
